

THE FOURTH AT THE FAIR GROUNDS.

Washington Camp P. O. S. of A. Making Elaborate Preparations to Celebrate.

The glorious Fourth will be celebrated in Maysville with a picnic at the fair grounds, given under the auspices of Washington Camp, P. O. S. of A. Elaborate preparations are being made to commemorate the anniversary in an appropriate manner.

The programme for the day will include bicycle races, foot races, mule races, and there will be an exhibition of the great national sport—base ball.

The game of ball will be played in the afternoon between Maysville's crack team, the Regulars, and Olympics. The latter club is probably the strongest picked nine in the city, and the game will do doubt be a good one. The Olympics is composed of the following:

Catcher—Elmer Rudy.
Pitcher—Simon Crowell.
First base—Charles Samuels.
Second base—Frank Purnell.
Third base—Stanley Nolin.
Short stop—Robert Moore.
Right field—James McCormick.
Center field—Charles Crane.

The electric cars will take you right to the grounds. Go out and enjoy the sport.

Good Advice.

Dr McAlister, President of the Drexel Institute, in Philadelphia, in a common sense talk to the class of the business department previous to graduation, recently told them: "Take what you can get to do, and do it well. What you want, above all, is a chance to show what you can do; and if you are deserving you will get recognition and promotion."

"It is a common mistake with young persons fresh from college and filled with ambitious dreams to regard the foot of the ladder as something beneath them. Yet nearly all the notable successes in life have been there, as the biographies show; and the wise graduate could ask no better stepping stone to fortune than the ladder's base—and a free chance to climb," says an exchange.

Glen Springs, Lewis County.

There will be an opening banquet and ball Wednesday evening, July 4th, to celebrate the noted Sprinkle silver mine discovered this week. The vein is twelve feet across, solid ore, within a short walk of the hotel. The dining room has been extended the past winter 131 feet in length, with many other improvements for convenience and comfort. A first class orchestra has been engaged for the season. Address for catalogue I. N. Walker, Glen Springs, Lewis County, Ky., or Charles Roth, Manager of springs, care St. Clair Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

Had to Lower Their Colors.

Portsmouth Tribune: "That proud Ironton base ball club which has had such a picnic with the K. B.'s of this city, was compelled to lower its colors at Maysville Friday, being beaten in two games by the Maysville club."

Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood's drug store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

DUZANS' VICTIM.

Miss Hull's Recovery Very Doubtful. The Pistol-User Escapes and Was at Large at Last Accounts.

The latest from the tragedy enacted near Poplar Flat, Lewis County, Saturday evening, is that Miss Hull, the victim of Charles Duzan's jealous rage, is more dangerously wounded than was reported Monday. Her recovery is very doubtful.

All three shots struck her, according to this last report,—one in the back of the head, one in the throat and one in the side of the neck. She is the youngest daughter of James Hull.

It is now learned that Duzan escaped from Constable Hamrick and was still at large at last accounts.

Thus another horrible crime is added to Lewis County's long list, and the criminal is still at liberty.

THERE are no new developments in the case of George Brown who it is thought met with foul play at Vanceburg a week or so ago.

HARRDSBURG has an ordinance which reads that "any able-bodied person found loafing, loitering or wandering within the city limits, or leading an idle or dissolute life, without any visible means of support, shall be arrested, and, upon conviction, be fined not less than $10 nor more than $50."

CENTRE College has added a law department. Hon. J. Proctor Knott will be at the head of the faculty. Among the special lecturers next session will be Justice John M. Harlan, of the United States Supreme Court; Attorney General Hendricks, Judge Hazelrigg, of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, and Judge Mike Saufley.

THIS week, in addition to her regular Tuesday and Friday evening excursion, the steamer Lorraine will make a Fourth of July evening excursion, leaving wharf at 7 p. m. standard time, running up and down in front of city until 9:30—two and a half hours ride on the water for only ten cents. Good music by Cliffords Orchestra. Come and enjoy this delightful excursion.

A NEW ordinance at Harrodsburg requires all butchers doing business in the city to pay an annual license of $25. The butchers held a meeting Saturday afternoon and agreed to kill no more beef, mutton or hogs until the license is repealed or better protection given them from the country butchers and peddlers. Consequently Harrodsburg will have no fresh meat for a few days, if its pocket-books can not reach chicken.

THE Union Trust Company's annual statement is published elsewhere in this issue. The past year proved a very successful one for the company, and as a result the sum of $3,000 was distributed Monday among the stockholders in the way of dividends, $470 was added to the surplus and $551 to the undivided profits. The company now has a surplus of $2,000, and undivided profits of about $1,500. The success of the company is very largely due to the prudent management and financiering of its Secretary, Mr. W. W. Ball.
